

Washington, April 11, 1839.
DEVELOPMENTS—HOW TO BRING IN AN ENEMY.
The remarkable disclosures, it is understood, were made respecting the connection with the Sub-Treasury; and how the wily President contributed to the man who had been his enemy and unrelenting enemy;—and into the advocacy of the leading scheme (and from that into general of the measures) of the Administration.
It is instant that Mr. Van Buren responds to the letter contained in the address of that gentleman to the Virginia, expressing his views in the financial measures under consideration in the Cabinet—on the instant that Mr. Rives to be thoroughly to the Sub-Treasury Scheme, and objects and consequences—and asserts that he could not calculate on any event to bring a strong sustain the Administration in the that moment he began to cast about for a man capable to be a leader in —and who might be induced by a motive to give in his adherence to his thoughts to John C. Cal-Van Buren knew this man well. He indulged selfishness was not less known; but that he was infinitely intact and management. The deep bittered which Calhoun entertained with so much reason, did not dismay He knew Calhoun's jealousy of Clay was strong enough for anything, remained to use, for the advancement of objects, Calhoun's opposition to the South, and Calhoun's jealousy influence and strength of Clay and with the Anti-Administration party throughout the country. He succeeded over Mr. Calhoun to adhere to administration on its principal measure of maître, not surpassed by that he succeeded in 1830 and '31, in President Jackson against Mr. then his most formidable rival—in for himself the favor of Gen. Jackson in turning upon Mr. Calhoun the of the "Old Hero."

Van Buren flatters himself, I think, that in this business was the conceals art. He is mistaken! proceedings are known; and will be known.
It is certain that Mr. Calhoun left South to attend the Extra Session, as and indignantly opposed to the Administration as he was when he declared in the Senate that they were "United in the cohesive power of the plunder Public"—he held the same sentiment in reference to the men in power who had expressed in his celebrated to the Petersburg Committee, (in 1835,) by whom he had been invited to give dinner, wherein he declared, "I have no objection to abuse only the Administration in the affectionate and powerful and disciplined corps of the main support of those in power, which has unfortunately established a commanding influence over public opinion—meaning the Office Holders." This was through North Carolina, it is said, Mr. Calhoun was crossed by the policy of Mr. Van Buren, who in-firmed of the "position" of Mr. Rives as "defection" (as the Administration called) of that Senator, and presenting a brilliant prospect in future for if he should become the leader of Calhoun-Wing of the Administration that was swallowed;—Mr. C. Calhoun Washington a supporter of the Sub-Treasury Scheme; and as events showed, to support the Administration throughout.

Van Buren may, perhaps, communicate to deny the part he in these transactions. But all the counts he denied, under his own signature making any attempts to prejudice Calhoun when Vice President, in the opinion of General Jackson the —yet all the world believes that make such attempts, and succeeded in the Globe prote as it may;
I have stated are true.
As Cassius M. Callahan, as the late Representative used to be called —though not certainly from the "lean and hungry look" or his qualities ascribed to the members—is still housed with the President, and enjoys a luxurious and elegant and now quiet mansion.
He has been greatly delighted with wherever the Marine Band from Yard regales occasionally the inhabitants of the White House. But what he has not yet been ascertained with the precision. However, his friends are assured he is in most excellent precision, and basks in the very sunshine of private favor.

Mr. Van Buren's commendation of Callahan—i. e. "Set this one among the most faithful!" in the Land Office at Washington a letter, from which we make the following:
It is necessary to inform you, that before I could be able to satisfy you as to my Commissioner to satisfy him as to my Commissioner, which I did in a letter from the most respectable of our citizens.
It is done in a free republican country and could obtain a petty office he is "satisfied" those in authority as to his "opinions." Is not this discreditable tyranny? When will there be an end of this?

N. O. Picaune.
Transcript mentions that "a clerical neighboring town, on the last Sabbath, took the occasion to preach to their moral duties for the coming year, particularly enforced the duty of paying for their newspapers." If that "When Gov. McNutt's vote first appeared, several prominent members of the party objected to it; subsequent reflection has convinced them that the Gov. was right." —Columbian Democrat.

The above is the most shallow article to conceal public sentiment which we recollect ever to have seen. "Several prominent" democrats, indeed! Does not that editor know that every intelligent and honest democrat in the whole state of Mississippi most heartily condemn the veto of the post note bill—a measure which caused the sacrifice of millions? Never, in the whole course of our life, have we ever known an official act received by the populace with such universal and indignant opposition. It was an act of unhappy policy—of cold, unfeeling position —for which there is no excuse or pretext.
Hundreds of honest men have already been ruined by its blighting influence, and many others are destined to suffer immensely. We should very much like to know by what mode of reasoning democrats have become "convinced" that the measure is "right".
We cannot imagine one single reason or one solitary argument which could possibly be adduced in defence of his Excellency's veto.—We have heard of no attempt to justify that veto, except by a few locofoco papers in the pay of Gov. McNutt, and those mercenary attempts one too abortive to merit attention.

"A NORTHERN MAN WITH SOUTHERN PRINCIPLES."—The loco focus delight in calling Mr. Van Buren a "Northern man with Southern principles." One of two things, then; must be true, viz: That he is either a TAILOR, or his partisans are guilty of falsehood. If he has abandoned the interests of his own section of the Union and of his own State, he, of course, is a traitor to them. If he has not, those who say he has, are guilty of falsehood. Choose ye between the cathartes.

JACKSON, April 9.
Those of our citizens who failed to procure discount at the Union Bank last week, should not blame the enlightened and liberal directors of that excellent institution.
All was done which could be done, consistently with the interests of the bank. The fact is, the war of persecution which Gov.
McNutt and his hired Newspaper editors are waging against the Union Bank, has incapacitated the institution for extending their relief which was expected, and which could have been afforded, but for the rancorous opposition of the Governor and a few of his friends. A Bank which has to bear the un-sleeping malice and active persecution of the executive of the State, is crippled in his operations, and must, of necessity, be exceedingly prudent in managing its affairs. The post note bill, which Gov. McNutt vetoed last winter, provided for the sale of the remaining State bonds.—Had the Governor permitted those bonds to have been sold, the Union Bank could have safely issued three times the amount of post notes which she has given the people, and would have been amply prepared to redeem them when due. But the veto prevented the bank from discounting extensively, and hence many worthy citizens are ruined, who might now have been in a safe condition.—If people will complain because they fail to get money, let them lay the blame where it properly belongs, at the feet of Alexander G. McNutt—he who, by an unconstitutional exercise of the veto power, nullified the humane provisions of the relief adopted by the legislature, and tied the hands of the Directors. We have no doubt but his excellency is well pleased to contemplate the ruin which he has wrought. The cries of distress which every wind bears to his ears, are no doubt highly pleasing to a soul so devoid of human sympathy.—Southern Sun.

NEW YORK ELECTION.
Enough has transpired to satisfy us, that both parties have behaved in a most disgraceful manner. Bribery and corruption were resorted to on both sides, and money used to secure a victory.
We are identified with a party. We would struggle to the last for its success. But if bribery be the hope—if the purchasing of votes is to be the condition of success, we say, unhesitatingly, openly, let us fail.—We cannot and will not be instrumental in thus debasing the American heart.
Talk about the failure of whigs, or the success of locofocos. What is that, compared to the corruption of man? Better would it be, that corruption should be annihilated, than that the system which both sides now pursue in N. York, should become universal. That would be merely, indeed, compared to the vice and degradation and low conduct, and abandonment of all principle which mark the American people, if such things are to become common in our country.—We are against such conduct. Let it come from what quarter it may, whigs or locofocos, we shall denounce it unflinchingly and unshrinkingly as it is offered out, to ruin our party, and rob us of our liberty.

A SIX TOUCH FROM A FRIEND.—The New Orleans Louisiana, speaking of the next vice-presidential election, inclines to the opinion, that Col. Johnson must be dropped.
The gentle language in which it expresses the necessity of such a step is a curiosity. It says: "If in reality, the Colonel intends to retire to the shades of private life" &c. Now we think it is rather a jesuitical way of cutting an old friend to twist him in this manner with disagreeable facts; as all who know the Colonel are surrounded, when he "retires to private life" will at once see it intended in the words here used by the Louisiana.

A new way to raise the wind.—A few days since, a flat boat laden with hay was sunk at our landing; and in that condition a Kentuckian purchased the boat and cargo [hay] for $35. In a short time he contrived to get the flat boat afloat, when he be thought him of turning it into a 'spec', to some account; accordingly he bought about $25 worth of the best hay he could procure, and spread it neatly over the wet and rotting hay underneath. His task of spreading and fixing the hay was scarcely accomplished, when one of our lively stable keepers made his appearance on board the boat, and made an offer for the hay, which the Kentuckian refused; and after some parleying, the boat and cargo was bought for the moderate sum of $700—yielding the Kentuckian a clear profit of $640.—Grand Gulf Advertiser.

"Such things don't happen every day" as the editor said when he opened a letter con-

IMPORTANT DECISION.—In a case tried by Chief Justice Shaw, of Massachusetts, he has decided that a commission merchant having received goods to sell at a limited price, and made advances on the same, has a right to reimburse or indemnify himself by selling said goods at a fair market price, though below the limits, if the consignor refuses, upon application, and after a reasonable time, to repay the advances.

An act for the protection and preservation of the rights and property of married women.

Sec. 1st. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That any married woman may become seized or possessed of any property, real or personal, by direct bequest, demise, gift, purchase or distribution, in her own name, and as of her own property, provided, the same does not come from her husband after coverture.

Sec. 2nd. Be it further enacted, That hereafter when any woman possessed of a property in slaves shall marry, her property in such slaves and their natural increase shall continue with her notwithstanding her coverture. And she shall have, hold and possess the same as her separate property, exempt from any liability for the debts or contracts of the husband.

Sec. 3rd. Be it further enacted, That when any woman during coverture, shall become entitled to, or possessed of slaves by conveyance, gift, inheritance, distribution or otherwise, such slaves together with their natural increase shall enure and belong to the wife, in like manner as is above provided, as to slaves which she may possess at the time of marriage.

Sec. 4th. Be it further enacted, That the control and management of all such slaves, the direction of their labor, and the receipt of the productions thereof, shall remain to the husband agreeable to the laws heretofore in force. All suits to recover the property or possession of such slaves shall be prosecuted or defended as the case may be in the joint names of the husband and the wife. In case of the death of the wife, such slaves descend and go to the children of her and her said husband jointly begotten, and in case there shall be no child born to the wife during such coverture, then such slaves shall descend and go to the husband and his heirs.

Sec. 5th. Be it further enacted, That the slave owners by a fence covert, under the provision of this act, may be sold by the joint deed of the husband and wife, executed, proved and recorded, agreeable to the laws now in force in regard to the conveyance of the real estate of feme coverts and not otherwise.

REMARKS.
The sales of the past week have not been considerable, and general dullness seems to have pervaded most branches of business, with the exception of the receiving and forwarding line. Considerable lots of Spring and Summer goods are arriving, both for town and country; those for the latter, seem to be forwarded, as fast as they come in store, by some of the numerous conveyances in waiting.

From the extensive stocks both by dry goods, groceries and produce, which seem to be daily arriving we anticipate an active spring trade; and can safely assure the planter, of the complete supply of all his wants at reduced prices.

The river is again falling.
Bacon continues in steady demand at our quotations—stocks good.

Pork, in bulk is still purchased by planters for smoking, and sales are considerable at 7 to 7 1/2 cts. hog round.

Flour, is dull at our quotation.
WHISKEY.—The stock is fair, but prices firm—sales 50 to 52 cts.

SUGAR AND COFFEE, continue steady, and there are fair retail demands for both articles —but little however is sold by the lot.

SALT, not much demand.
COTTON. But few lots have been received during the week and but little offered for sale.

We refer to our New Orleans dates of the 20th inst. for the state of the market.

TO THE PUBLIC.
Office of the Solicitor of the Treasury, April 8, 1839, SIR—I have received your letter of the 6th inst. relative to the levy on Mr. Swar-town's interest in the land in Mississippi, under the distress warrant against him and his sureties.

I have received the Report of the District Attorney on the subject, in which he confirms your representation in regard to the land belonging to the American Lamp Company, and I have therefore written to Mr. Butterworth the District Attorney for the Northern District of Mississippi, directing that instructions may be given to the Marshall to withdraw the levy from the lands of the Company, and also to file off record in the office of the Clerk of the District Court where the levy is recorded a supplementary return to that effect.

Very respectfully yours,
H. D. GILPIN,
Solicitor of the Treasury.

PETERS' PILLS
THESE PILLS have long been known and appreciated for their extraordinary and immediate powers of restoring perfect health, to persons suffering under nearly every kind of diseases to which the human frame is liable.
In many hundred of certificated instances they ever rescued sufferers from the very verge of an eternally grave, after all the deceptive nostrums of the day had utterly failed, and to many thousands have permanently secured that uniform enjoyment of health, without which life itself is but a partial blessing.—So great indeed, has their efficacy invariably and infallibly proved that it has appeared scarcely less than miraculous to those who were unacquainted with the beautiful philosophical principles on which they consequently act.

The proprietor rejoices in the opportunity afforded by the universal diffusion of the daily press, for placing his vegetable pills, within the knowledge and reach of every individual in the community. Unlike the host of pernicious quackeries, which boast of vegetable ingredients, these pills are purely and solely vegetable, and contain neither Mercury, Arsenic, or any other poisonous mineral, in any form whatever.
They are entirely composed of extracts from rare and powerful plants, the virtues of which, though long known to several Indian tribes, and recently to some eminent pharmaceutical chemists, are altogether unknown to the ignorant pretenders to medical science, and were never before administered in so happily efficacious a combination.

Whenever these pills have been once introduced into a family, they become a standing remedy, and are called for again and again, which is sufficient proof of their good qualities.
It is a truth, that almost every person who has ever used Peters' Vegetable Pills, recommend them to their friends, and it is from this circumstance alone, that they have gained such an unrivalled reputation.

When taken according to the directions accompanying them, they are highly beneficial in the prevention and cure of bilious fever, fever and ague, dyspepsia, liver complaints, sick headache, jaundice, asthma, rheumatism, enlargement of the spleen, piles, cramp and bilious colic, female obstructions, heart burn, pleurisy, indured tongue, distention of the stomach and bowels, greenness, and in all cases, of indigestion, constipation, diarrhoea, flatulency, habitual convulsions, loss of appetite, bloated or swollen countenance, and in all cases, of torpor of the bowels, when a cathartic or an aperient is needed. They have the testimony of the whole medical profession in their favor, while not a single case of ill consequences or inefficiency, can be alleged against them.

Prepared by Jos. Priestly Peters, M. D., at his Institution, for the cure of obstinate diseases, by means of Vegetable remedies, No. 129 Liberty Street, New York. Each box contains 40 pills—price 75 Cents.
More than two millions of boxes of these celebrated pills have been sold in the United States since January, 1835.
Dr. Peters has received upwards of fifteen hundred certificates, all given in consequence of the good done by his Medicines.

Pills.—They are for sale in Holly Springs, at the Store of Messrs O. D. Sledge & Co. and can be had in almost every town in the State.
